

intensive group course italian for foreigners MILAN AND SICILY

MILAN AND SICILY

Language.it offers a new type of course specifically designed for students who have short time to study Italian language and desires to combine their language course with vacations.

The programme of our new intensive course is developed in two weeks. The first week of the course will take place in Milan, at Language.it, the second one will take place in Cefalù, a wonderful town located on the northern coast of Sicily. We have selected an excellent language school that will be our partner in this new project.

Programme of the first week of the course.

Location: Milan

Duration: one week from Monday to Friday (total course time 20 hours)4 hours per day. One hour of course lasts 45 minutes. The hours are organized in two lessons of 90 minutes each, with a 30 minutes break between the two lessons. Lessons will be held in the morning or in the afternoon, according to the level and the selected period.

The first day teachers will welcome students and give them all useful information to fully enjoy their staying in Milan. Afterwards students will be taken in an instructive guided tour of the city centre.

Programme of the second week of the course.

Location: Cefalù

Duration: one week from Monday to Friday (total course time 20 hours)4 hours per day. One hour of course lasts 55 minutes. The hours are organized in two lessons, with a 20 minutes break in between. Lessons will be held in the morning.

Also in Cefalù the first day of the course an instructive guided tour of the town will be offered.

Total price of the package: 360 euros.

This price includes VAT and learning materials. There are no additional charges.

We offer to the participants completely free assistance in searching an accommodation in Milan and/or Cefalù.

Small groups, from 3 to 8 students. In case of only 2 participants the hours of course will be reduced to 15 per week, in case of only 1 participant the hours of course will be reduced to 10 per week.

To all students interested in this programme Language.it offers a completely free entrance test

We also offer free assistance to students who need to obtain a study visa in order to take part in the course.